Goodnight Moon

Goodnight Moon

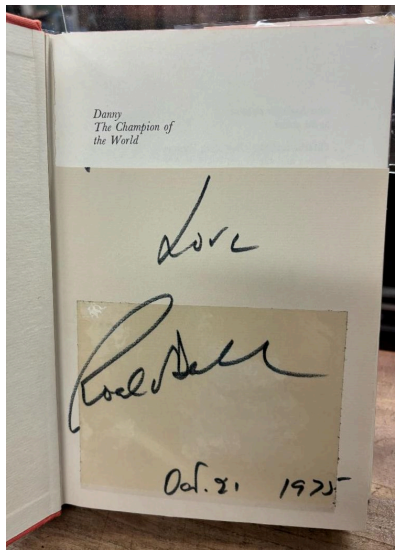

Walden

Originally published in 1854, this 1864 edition includes the same illustration on title page. Cloth over boards has discoloration, fading especially on the spine. Gift inscription. There is foxing and some staining throughout. The rear board and several of the last pages have water damage. The book is dry and does not have an odor of anything other than paper. Lacking rear endpaper. $1000

Walden

Danny: The Champion of the World

First Edition, signed on front endpaper: Love / Roald Dahl / Oct. 21 1975. Front endpaper above "Love" has been clipped off. Dahl's signature has been covered with tape so it is there to stay. Book is clean throughout with a hint of shelf lean. DJ has some light wear on edges, not price clipped. In an archival cover. $1000
